

Grivokostopoulou Anastasia

This assignment aims to depict the characteristics of the dialect “Welsh”. Firstly, a brief description based on the website WALS is presented. Then the presentation of Welsh is enriched with an audio file, a short text and a picture from the region in which this language is spoken. A table based on information gathered from WALS follows:

Name	Genus	Family	Macroarea	Latitude	Longitude	Countries
Welsh	Celtic	Indo-European	Eurasia	52.00	-3.00	United Kingdom

Generally, the pronunciation of the Welsh language differs in different parts of Wales. Specifically, the Welsh spoken in North, South and Mid Wales sound very different. This information comes from this website: <https://www.jlb2011.co.uk/wales/sounds/index.htm> .

- Here is a link for a video showing a teacher learning her student the Welsh accent:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8K5UrkaWEuk>

- Here is the translation of the sentence “Hallo. The weather is moody and rainy today.” in Welsh dialect: “Hallo. Mae'r tywydd yn oriog a glawog heddiw.”
- Finally, the following picture shows the percentages of the Welsh speakers in 2018 by region.

Welsh Speakers (2018)

